

NanoCanada Mission to São Paulo, Brazil

September 23rd – 27th, 2019

NanoCanada invites you to join us in a trade mission to São Paulo, Brazil. This mission is in parallel with the Global Affairs Canada and the National Research Council Industrial Research Assistance Program's (NRC-IRAP) Canadian Nanotechnology Partnership Development Activity mission to Brazil.

The Nano Trade Show - considered the most important nanotechnology event in Brazil, the show brings together the latest developments in the sector, including nanotechnology research, development, applications and solutions.

Tentative Schedule

| | |
|---------------------------------------|--|
| Monday, September 23 rd | Briefing to Canadian participants (market overview, doing business in Brazil, IP protection, program overview) |
| Tuesday, September 24 th | Trade show, business to business meetings, evening reception |
| Wednesday, September 25 th | Trade show (Pitch of Canadian companies at centre stage) |
| Thursday, September 26 th | Site Visit to LNNano, CNPEM, Sirius in Campinas, trade show |
| Friday, September 27 th | Additional follow-up meetings (organized by participants) |

Pricing

1. We are pleased to offer NanoCanada members a significantly reduced registration fee. (Contact info@nanocanada.com if you are interested in membership.)
2. Regular registration fee applies for non-members. $950

Travel and related costs:

Please note: to receive approval for funding in time, companies should submit their application as soon as possible.

Eligible Canadian companies can apply for funding from CanExport:

Eligible Canadian researchers from private companies, universities and non-government research centres can apply for funding from Going Global Innovation:

Alberta companies can also apply for funding under the Alberta Export Support Fund:

Ontario companies can apply for funding with the Export Market Access Program.

Quebec companies can also apply for funding under the provincial export program.

Deadline to apply:

Space is limited so please apply soon. The deadline is Monday, July 15th. For additional information please contact Janice Warkentin at Janice.Warkentin@nanocanada.com or Patricia Tokunaga at Patricia.Tokunaga@nanocanada.com.

We look forward to your participation in this mission!

Janice Warkentin

Director of Business Development, NanoCanada